dancer / choreographer

Brief Biography

Born in Edinburgh, Rita Dow studied classical ballet first at McLennan's Academy of Dancing in Edinburgh (1928) and later at the Royal Academy of Dance in London (1932-4 & 1938). She received accreditation from both the Society of Operatic Dancing of Great Britain (1934) and the Imperial Society of Teachers of Dance (1939). Her career saw her involvement in a number of productions for the Howard & Wyndham Ltd. company (1941 – 1947), perhaps most significantly the "Half-Past Eight Show" starring alongside Harry Gordon. Latterly she became Ballet Mistress and Head Girl for the same company.

The Royal Scottish Academy of Music and Drama houses her personal papers, dancing qualifications, choreographic notes, publicity photographs, contracts of employment, press clippings and other personal ephemera.
